

Discrimination is against the law

The Health Connector complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Health Connector does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Services available through the Health Connector

The Health Connector provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us. These aids and services include:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats like large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats.

The Health Connector provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English. These services include:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact the Massachusetts Health Connector at 1-888-813-9220 or TTY: 711 for people who are deaf, hard of hearing, or speech disabled.

You can file a grievance if you think you have been discriminated against

If you believe that the Health Connector or another party operating on the exchange has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with the Health Connector or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Service Office for Civil Rights.

If you want to file a grievance with the Health Connector, please visit our website to download our policy and complaint form. You can find these documents online at: www.MAhealthconnector.org/site-policies/nondiscrimination-notice

If you need help filing a grievance, please email the Health Connector's Compliance Manager at Nondiscrimination@state.ma.us or call 617-936-1037.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. To learn more about filing a complaint, call 1-800-368-1019, 800-537-7697 (TDD) or go to their website at: www.hhs.gov/civil-rights/filing-a-complaint
